PC:

The applicant at the time of commission of offence was working as Talathi. The applicant-accused is convicted of an offence under section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act and sentenced to suffer rigorous imprisonment for one year and to pay fine of Rs.500/- in default to suffer rigorous imprisonment for three months. For offence under section 13(1)(d) r/w section 13 (2) of the Prevention of Act the applicant is sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for two years and pay fine ofRs.1500/- in default to rigorous imprisonment for six months. The substantive sentences are to run concurrently.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant-accused was on bail during the trial and has not misused the same. Further a statement is made that the fine amount has been deposited in the Court below. Perused the impugned judgment. The appeal is not likely to come up for final hearing before expiry of period of sentence. Hence I direct that the applicant-accused b released/continued on bail on same terms and conditions on which he was released on bail during the trial on executing fresh bond. Application stands disposed of accordingly.
